

2001 INSTRUCTIONS
FOR TAXPAYERS PREPARING RHODE ISLAND RESIDENT
INCOME TAX RETURNS – FORM RI-1040

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This booklet contains returns and instructions for filing the 2001 Rhode Island Resident Individual Income Tax Return. Read the instructions in this booklet carefully. For your convenience we have provided "line by line instructions" which will aid you in completing your return. Please print or type so that it will be legible. Check the accuracy of your name(s), address and social security number(s).

RI-1040

Most resident taxpayers will only need to complete the first two pages of Form RI-1040. Those taxpayers claiming modifications to federal adjusted gross income must complete page 2, schedule I. Taxpayers claiming a credit for income taxes paid to another state must complete page 2, schedule III.

Nonresidents and part-year residents will file their Rhode Island Individual Income Tax Returns on Form RI-1040NR. These forms and instructions are available upon request at local libraries, Post Office branches or the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence RI 02908-5801.

Complete your 2001 Federal Income Tax Return first. It is the basis for preparing your Rhode Island income tax return. In general, the Rhode Island income tax is based on your federal taxable income.

Accuracy and attention to detail in completing the return in accordance with these instructions will facilitate the processing of your tax return. You may find the following points helpful in preparing your Rhode Island Income Tax Return.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

Resident individuals – Every resident individual of Rhode Island required to file a federal income tax return must file a Rhode Island individual income tax return (RI-1040).

A resident individual who is not required to file a federal income tax return may be required to file a Rhode Island income tax return if his/her income for the taxable year is in excess of the sum of his/her federal personal exemptions.

"Resident" means an individual who is domiciled in the State of Rhode Island or an individual who maintains a permanent place of abode in Rhode Island and spends more than 183 days of the year in Rhode Island.

For purposes of the above definition, domicile is found to be a place an individual regards as his or her permanent home – the place to which he or she intends to return after a period of absence. A domicile, once established, continues until a new fixed and permanent home is acquired. No change of domicile results from moving to a new location if the intention is to remain only for a limited time, even if it is for a relatively long duration. For a married couple, normally both individuals have the same domicile. Any person asserting a change in domicile must show:

- an intent to abandon the former domicile,
- an intent to acquire a new domicile and
- actual physical presence in a new domicile.

JOINT AND SEPARATE RETURNS

JOINT RETURNS. Generally, if a husband and wife file a joint federal income tax return, they also must file a joint Rhode Island income tax return. However, if either the husband or the wife is a resident and the other is a non-resident, they must file separate returns, unless they elect to file a joint return as if both were residents of Rhode Island. If the resident spouse files separately in RI and a joint federal return is filed for both spouses, the resident spouse must compute income, exemptions and tax as if a separate federal return had been filed.

If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, they may elect to file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

Individuals filing joint Rhode Island income tax returns are both equally liable to pay the tax. They incur what is known as "joint and several liability" for Rhode Island income tax.

SEPARATE RETURNS. Individuals filing separate federal income tax returns must file separate Rhode Island income tax returns.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

Under the provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, the service pay of members of the armed forces can only be subject to income tax by the state of which they are legal residents. Place of legal residence at the time of entry into the service is normally presumed to be the legal state of residence and remains so until legal residence in another state is established and service records are changed accordingly. The Rhode Island income tax is imposed on all the federal taxable income of a resident who is a member of the armed forces, regardless of where such income is received. Military pay received by a nonresident service person stationed in Rhode Island is not subject to Rhode Island income tax. This does not apply to other income derived from Rhode Island sources, e.g., if the service person holds a separate job, not connected with his or her military service, income received from that job is subject to Rhode Island income tax. Income derived from Rhode Island sources by the service person's spouse is subject to Rhode Island income tax.

Internal Revenue Code provisions governing armed forces pay while serving in a "combat zone" or in an area under conditions that qualify for Hostile Fire Pay are applicable for Rhode Island purposes.

DECEASED TAXPAYERS

If the taxpayer died before filing a return for 2001, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space on the return.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased, must file Form RI-1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

WHEN TO FILE

If your return is based on the calendar year, it must be filed not later than April 15.

If the due date of your return falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Rhode Island legal holiday, the return will be due on the next working day.

EXTENSION OF TIME

Any extension of time granted for filing an individual income tax return shall not operate to extend the time for the payment of any tax due on such return.

In General -

- An individual who is required to file a Rhode Island income tax return shall be allowed an automatic four month extension of time to file such return.
- An application must be prepared in duplicate on form RI-4868.
- The original of the application must be filed on or before the date prescribed for the filing of the return of the individual with the Rhode Island Division of Taxation.
- Such application for extension must show the full amount properly estimated as tax for such taxpayer for such taxable year, and such application must be accompanied by the full remittance of the amount properly estimated as tax which is unpaid as of the date prescribed for the filing of the return.

NOTE: If no payment is required to be made with your Rhode Island extension form and you are filing a federal extension form for the same period of time, then you do not need to submit the Rhode Island form. Attach a copy of the Federal Form 4868 or the approved Federal Form 2688 to your Rhode Island individual income tax return at the time it is submitted.

MISSING OR INCORRECT FORM W-2

Only your employer can issue or correct this form. If you have not received a Form W-2 from your employer by February 15, or if the form which you have received is incorrect, contact your employer as soon as possible.

ROUNDING OFF TO WHOLE DOLLARS

The money items on your return and schedules may be shown in whole dollars. This means that you may eliminate any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 cents to 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

CHANGES IN YOUR FEDERAL TAXABLE INCOME OR FEDERAL TAX LIABILITY

You must report to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation any change or correction in federal taxable income or federal tax liability as reported on your federal income tax return, whether resulting from the filing of an amended federal return or otherwise. Such report must be made within 90 days after filing an amended federal return or final determination of such change by the Internal Revenue Service.
Use Form RI-1040X.

ELECTORAL SYSTEM CONTRIBUTION

You may designate a contribution of five dollars ($5), or ten dollars ($10) if married and filing a joint return, to the account for the public financing of the electoral system. The first two dollars ($2), or four dollars ($4) if married and filing a joint return, up to a total of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) collectively for all parties and the nonpartisan account, shall be allocated only to political parties which at the preceding general election, nominated a candidate for governor and such candidate polled at least 5 percent of the entire vote cast in the state for governor. Remaining funds shall be allocated for the public financing of campaigns for governor.

You may make only one designation either by naming a political party or by checking the box for the nonpartisan general account. If you designate:

1. a political party which did not receive at least 5% of the entire vote for governor in the preceding general election,
2. a nonexistent political party,

3. a particular office,
4. an individual office holder, or political figure or
5. a national party which is not a state party; your electoral system contribution will be credited to the nonpartisan general account. If you designate more than one political party or a political party and also the nonpartisan general account, your contribution will be credited to the first political party named.

CONTRIBUTIONS

You may designate as contributions to the Drug Program Account, the US Olympic Committee, the Rhode Island Organ Transplant Fund, RI Council on the Arts Appropriation, the Non-game Wildlife Appropriation, and the Childhood Disease Victims' Fund.

RHODE ISLAND LOTTERY PRIZES

Winnings and prizes received from the Rhode Island Lottery are taxable under the Rhode Island personal income tax law and are includable in the income of both residents and nonresidents alike.

SIGNATURE

You must sign your Rhode Island income tax return and both husband and wife must sign their joint return. An unsigned return cannot be processed.

Any paid preparer who prepares a taxpayer's return must also sign as "preparer". If a firm or corporation prepares the return, it should be signed in the name of the firm or corporation.

Don't need forms mailed to you next year?

Taxpayers who pay someone else to prepare their returns probably do not need a booklet mailed to them each year. If you do not need a booklet mailed to you next year, check the box below the signature line. The Division of Taxation will send you a postcard as a reminder to see your preparer. Telling us that you do not need a booklet next year will help us to reduce printing and mailing costs.

PAYMENTS OR REFUNDS

Any tax due must be paid in full with your return. Complete Form RI-1040V. Make check or money order payable to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation and send them with your return to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5808. An amount due of less than one dollar ($1) need not be paid.

A refund will be made if an overpayment of income tax is shown on your return, unless you indicate on your return that such overpayment is to be credited to your estimated tax liability for 2002. No other application for refund is necessary. Please note that no refund can be made unless your return is properly signed. Refunds of less than $1.00 will not be paid unless specifically requested.

ESTIMATED INCOME TAX

If a taxpayer can reasonably expect to owe more than $250 after allowing for withholding tax and/or credits, he or she must make estimated tax payments. Estimated tax payments are made on Form RI-1040ES that has instructions for computing the estimated tax and making payments.

T-205P Individual Consumer's Use/Sales Tax Return

What is a Use Tax?

A Use Tax is a tax on the use of tangible personal property in a state where the property has not been subject to the sales tax. Rhode Island Use Tax applies when merchandise purchased outside of Rhode Island is brought into Rhode Island. Sales and use taxes are complementary taxes and are assessed at the same rate. In Rhode Island the sales and use tax rate is 7%. The Rhode Island Use Tax is most often due when merchandise subject to the sales tax in Rhode Island is purchased from an out-of-state vendor who did not collect the Rhode Island tax and the property is subsequently used in this state. Common examples of transactions from which use tax liability may arise are mail order catalog sales, and toll-free "800" purchases and purchases made over the internet.

What is taxable?

The same items that are subject to the Rhode Island Sales Tax are subject to the use tax. Some typical examples of taxable items are jewelry, computers and electronic equipment. Clothing and footwear are not taxable.
